

Air Force T-Shirt

This design was created for an Air Force squad that was graduating basic training. They wanted to commemorate the milestone by creating a shirt that depicted the fierceness of their passion for defending their country. Air Force colors and the logo are used. The original design is done with color pencils and a micron marker.

